Currency
Hong Kong’s currency is the Hong Kong dollar (HK$). The pataca is the official unit of currency in Macau. In China the currency is the renminbi, the standard unit is the yuan (CNY).

Passports, visas and insurance
Australian passport holders must have a valid passport with at least six months’ validity beyond their stay in Hong Kong, China and Macau. Australian passport holders do not require a visa for visits of up to three months in Hong Kong and 30 days in Macau. All visitors to China do require a visa. A visa must be obtained before departing Australia. You can acquire your tourist visa from your nearest Chinese Embassy or consulate. We strongly recommend that you purchase a comprehensive travel insurance policy when you book your holiday.

Shopping
Hong Kong is a city of commerce and trade and is famous for its tailored clothes, electrical and photographic goods, watches, antiques, silk fabrics, china, diamonds, jewellery, perfume and local handicrafts. You’ll find everything from cutting-edge fashion to Chinese antiques. In Macau, the most popular buys include jewellery, antiques, electrical goods, porcelain, pottery, watches and knitwear, which are all available at duty-free prices. China offers hundreds of modern shopping centres with good quality silks, crafts and jewellery.

Discover Hong Kong & China for FREE!
There are many free offers and activities available throughout Hong Kong & China and the team at Qantas Holidays have uncovered just a few...

• The Hong Kong Zoological and Botanical Gardens house has more than 1,000 species of plants and over 500 birds and animals, including orangutans, lemurs and flamingos. Entry is free.
• Victoria Harbour is at the heart of Hong Kong, and every night at 8.00pm you can view A Symphony of Lights along its shores. Named the “World’s Largest Permanent Light and Sound Show” by the Guinness Book of World Records, this dazzling multimedia presentation, complete with lasers, searchlights, and pyrotechnics on special occasions, features more than 40 Hong Kong buildings on both sides of the harbour. Free every evening.
• The Hong Kong Museum of Art boasts more than 15,000 pieces, including many Chinese paintings, historical portraits, ceramics, and calligraphy works. Entry is free every Wednesday.

Angela says...
Explore all that Hong Kong has to offer throughout the bustling streets, fabulous harbour and islands. With more than 11,000 restaurants, food lovers are spoilt for choice. Experience Macau, a fascinating city of cultures and entertainment. Discover the natural beauty and world wonders that China is renowned for. A combination of these captivating destinations will create an unforgettable holiday experience.
The vibrant city of Hong Kong offers holiday experiences like no other. Here, old meets new, East meets West, and you can shop until you drop. With it’s peaceful Tai-Chi in Kowloon Park, neon bright lights, lofty mountain peaks, lively markets and floating restaurants, there’s excitement and tradition at every turn. Macau is a contrast of cultures. Visit Macau and discover a land of great history and culture alongside Las Vegas style casinos.

Hong Kong
Hong Kong is a story in three parts: Hong Kong Island, Kowloon Peninsula and the New Territories. Together, they’re a combination of modern skyscrapers and ancient temples, Tai-Chi, beaches, mountains and deserted islands. Then there is the sublime shopping: designer fashion, electrical goods and charming local souvenirs. Hong Kong is also renowned as a gourmet’s paradise with an abundance of cafes and restaurants. Hong Kong is also renowned as a gourmet’s paradise with an abundance of cafes and restaurants. Hong Kong’s history is fascinating. Originally a small fishing community and a haven for travellers and pirates, it was used by the British as a naval base during the Opium Wars with China. It remained a British colony from 1842 until sovereignty was transferred to the Peoples Republic of China in 1997.

Dining
Renowned as the culinary capital of Asia, Hong Kong boasts more than 11,000 restaurants, many of which are clustered in defined food districts. In addition to enjoying the best Cantonese and regional Chinese food, visitors can sample a full range of authentic Asian cuisines as well as superb Western culinary delights. Hong Kong is home to over 200 Michelin rated restaurants.

Kowloon
Kowloon is a bustling mixture of shops, fantastic bars, pubs, restaurants and markets. Kowloon is connected to Hong Kong Island by three tunnels and the MTR, but a trip across Hong Kong Harbour on a Star Ferry is the ideal way to commute between the two. Be tempted by the Temple Street Night Markets and wander along Nathan Road for its vast range of shopping.

Hong Kong Island
Home to the original settlement of the Hong Kong territory, Victoria. Hong Kong Island is the city’s financial and business hub, where charming colonial buildings sit next to modern skyscrapers. The thriving island features restaurants, bars, shopping and so much to do. Visit the SoLo district for upscale boutiques, bars and a wide variety restaurants. Travel on the tram car to Victoria Peak, pick up some souvenirs or artworks and fashion at Stanley Market or dine at one of the famous floating restaurants on Aberdeen Harbour. At night the skyline dazzles cityscape neon light show.

Macau
Set on a small peninsula at the entrance to the Pearl River, Macau was once a Portuguese stronghold and this heritage is laid out in the country’s fortresses, churches and delicious food. Only an hour from Hong Kong by catamaran or jetfoil, Macau and its temples, museums and casinos are well worth exploring.

Hong Kong Island is the historic, political and economic centre of Hong Kong. The island is home to some of Hong Kong’s best-known tourist spots; Victoria Peak, Central Markets, Stanley Market, Repulse Bay, Aberdeen Harbour, the Jumbo Floating Restaurant and the area of Lan Kwai Fong with many restaurants, bars and nightclubs. During September to early July, the Happy Valley Racecourse is popular among tourists and locals. It is one of the most famous horse racing tracks in the world.

Angela says...

Hong Kong Island offers some of the best restaurants and bars. Enjoy dinner in SOHO or Wan Chai where there are many restaurants to choose from, then a drink at one of the fabulous rooftop bars overlooking the harbour such as Armani/Prive located in Central.

Located on a stunning peninsula linked by serpent-like bridges to the Islands of Taipa and Coloane and the contemporary Cotai Strip, Macau has a unique quality which merges a rich colonial-Asian history with modern features. A city once settled by the Portuguese has a collection of beautifully restored and UNESCO World Heritage-listed architecture at its centre including the world famous Ruins of St Paul's and intriguing Old Fort. Be sure to sample Macau's melting pot of fabulous local and international cuisines and European wines or enjoy world class shows and entertainment or recreation activities like the bungee or walking the outer rim of Macau Tower – at 233 metres, it's the world's 10th tallest tower. If Motorsports are your thing, plan your trip in November to coincide with the adrenalin-fuelled Macau Grand Prix – the longest running street circuit of its kind.

Macau is famous for Macanese Cuisine. A fusion of Chinese and Portuguese cooking styles. Make sure you try one of the many local restaurants close to the A-Ma Temple along Rua do Almirante Sérgio.

A marriage of ancient culture and forward thinking, China is a vast and fascinating country that casts an enduring spell over all who visit. Explore its timeless wonders, from The Great Wall and Terracotta Warriors at Xian to the famous Three Gorges along the Yangtze River and Beijing’s Forbidden City.

Beijing
Beijing is a wonderful window into the past; an intriguing mix of ancient imperial dynasties and cultural and political change. You won’t want to miss its many attractions – the Imperial Palace, the Temple of Heaven, the Ming Tombs and the Forbidden City, to name a few.

Shanghai
One of the world’s largest cities and China’s most commercial and cosmopolitan, Shanghai is the nation’s shining star. Sample its amazing range of cuisine, visit its vibrant upmarket bars, admire its inspired architecture and shop until your credit cards can stand no more.

Xian
A city of astounding relics, Xian’s history can be traced back to the 11th century BC. It’s home to the powerful Terracotta Warriors and the World Heritage-listed Mausoleum of Emperor Qin Shi Huang. Located in the fertile Wei River valley, it also has impressive shopping outlets, department stores and supermarkets, including the comprehensive Kai Yuan Shopping Mall.

Guilin
Guilin’s breathtaking landscape - shapely limestone hills, lush vegetation and crystal-clear water - has inspired many generations of Chinese artists and poets. The city has a well-developed tourist centre, good accommodation and transport, and is accessible by air, train or bus.

Guangzhou
The prosperous and energetic port of Guangzhou, southern China, was once the capital city of three Chinese dynasties and still retains many of its ancient customs. Set along the Pearl River, which spills into the South China Sea and provides water access to Hong Kong and Macau, it has a wealth of lively restaurants, shops and bars.

Shenzhen
This former fishing village is now one of the fastest growing and wealthiest cities in China, and is a shopping mecca for holidaymakers and the residents of nearby Hong Kong. With everything from electronics to handbags, dim sum to DVDs, Shenzhen is a must for dedicated shoppers.

Things to see and do
- Discover the mysteries of Beijing’s Forbidden City
- Cruise the Yangtze and take in the fabulous Three Gorges scenery
- Enjoy the Dongtai Lu Antique Market in Old Town Shanghai

One of China’s true ancient citadels, Beijing is a mix of exquisite imperial palaces, towers, gates and stone walls. It’s also home to the Forbidden City, which was inaccessible to commoners for 500 years, and historic Tiananmen Square – the centre and hub of today’s vast and confident modern metropolis. Find time to sample the city’s specialty, Peking duck, or sit and play chess with a local. Explore Beijing and its many riches or use it as a base for a visit to the nation’s most famous attraction, The Great Wall, which lies about 80 kilometres to the north-west.

Angela says...
Beijing is a very spread-out city, pre-book your tours if you want to fit in all main attractions. Head to the lively lakeside area of Houhai for dinner, filled with restaurants and bars.

Things to see and do
- Experience the local cuisine
- Be captivated by the supreme royal mysteries at the Forbidden City and Tiananmen Square
- Visit Drum Tower for great views over Beijing
- Take in Beijing’s largest and most exquisite temple, Lama Temple
- Take a tour of the Great Wall of China and walk on the greatest man-made project on earth

A visit to dynamic Shanghai is exhilarating. This booming city is China’s largest and home to shopping malls and eye-popping modern architecture as well as ancient temples, street markets and classical Chinese gardens. Shanghai is a city of incredible contrast; you can sip a cocktail in an upmarket bar, eat dumplings at a street stall and marvel at a 10th-century Buddhist monastery. There are European-style cityscapes and tree-lined neighbourhoods and the futuristic skyline of Pudong. Visit the fascinating Shanghai Museum for its 12,000-plus cultural relics including paintings, sculptures, ceramics and carvings, and pop into the Poster Propaganda Art Centre for a sample of the slogans from China’s Maoist heyday.

Angela says...

The Shanghai Museum is a must, allow plenty of time. Explore the lively Xintiandi where you’ll be spoilt for choice of restaurants and bars.
Shanghai for food lovers

Operated by: Intrepid Travel  Duration: 2-3 hours
Departs: Daily

Made by foodies, for foodies. You will meet your local tour guide at the Jing’an Temple and then be taken to your first stop, one of the most renowned vegetarian noodle restaurants in town. Here you’ll be able to sample different veggie options and your guide will give you recommendations. From here you’ll head to a typical Chinese food store where locals go to shop. Next you’ll take a walk through a residential area in Shanghai where you’ll gain an insight into the daily lives of the locals. After this meander through a homely neighbourhood, you’ll stop at a fresh food market. The final stop on this Shanghai food tour will be at a traditional Chinese restaurant famous for its bakery packed full of delicious bites. From xie ke bao (crab shell pie) to sheng jian bao (fried buns). Your tour will finish in the same spot as it began.

Regional China

Regional China has an amazing blend of natural beauty, mystical surrounds and ancient legends. Vast contrasts offer infinite opportunities to explore the glorious landscape and embrace the culture. Watch local fishermen on bamboo rafts floating down the Li River through the spectacular Karst mountains of Guilin, discover canal towns, verdant bamboo forests, colonial remains, take in scenic and ageless views overlooking scattered villages. Relax in old town tea houses and watch as farmers tend their crop or embark a hike in the glorious landscape, seeing parts of China less travelled.

Xi'an

Xi’an is the fabled beginning and end of the Silk Road, a whirl of music, colour and desert dust, where camel caravans unloaded goods from across the Eurasian continent and packed up aspects of China that went on to influence the world. Located in the fertile Wei River valley, it was one of the epicentres of early Chinese civilisation and a well-established city, two centuries before Rome was founded.

Day 3: Xitang

Get a taste of traditional China on a day trip to an ornate water town. Chill out by the canals, sip steaming cups of tea at a local teahouse or learn about local history at one of the many museums. Get lost among the maze of peaceful cobblestone streets lined with village buildings - a nice break from the chaos of modern Shanghai. While here, gliding along the waterways in a gondola is the ideal way to enjoy a real water town experience. Overnight: Overnight sleeper train

Days 4-5: Xian

Hop aboard an overnight train to Xian, the capital of Shaanxi province and the beginning of the ancient Silk Road. Explore this vibrant, modern city that is bursting with some of China’s most famous cultural and historical attractions. Come face-to-face with the imposing Terracotta Warriors, a stoic army set out in battle formation and complete with horses and chariots. Learn about this incredible archaeological site before making a lunch stop at Huiling - an Intrepid Foundation-supported project that assists people in the local community who have intellectual disabilities. Overnight: Xian

Day 6: Great Wall

Head to this world wonder and spend a day ambling along the ancient stone pathways that make up the spectacular Great Wall of China. Overnight: Great Wall

Days 7-9: Beijing

Arrive in Beijing and become immersed in a city of culture, modernity and chaos. Spend time visiting Tiananmen Square - the largest city square in the world - and the Forbidden City, an oasis of gardens and courtyards in the heart of an urban jungle. Overnight: Beijing

Yangzi and Beyond

14 days/13 nights from Shanghai
Operated by: Intrepid Travel

Price Includes
- Accommodation: Hotels (9 nights), overnight sleeper train (1 night), overnight boat (3 nights)
- Transport: Boat, bus, overnight sleeper train, plane, private bus, train
- Meals: 12 Breakfasts, 2 Lunches, 2 Dinners

Days 1-3: Shanghai

Bustling Shanghai can be overwhelming, so settle in with a walking tour of the smaller Zhouzhuang. This is one of the most famous water townships in China. Jump in a gondola and cruise back in time through this quaint town, a true ‘Venice of China’ experience. Back in Shanghai, explore modern China, venturing to contemporary shopping quarters and fashionable restaurants. Overnight: Shanghai

Day 4: Chengdu

Hop aboard a flight to Chengdu and delve into Sichuan cuisine with a spicier hot pot, plate of dragon prawns or bang bang chicken. In spare time, perhaps check out a traditional opera performance or head to one of the restaurants in Wenshu Temple for some delicious vegetarian dishes. Overnight: Chengdu

Day 5-7: Yangzi River

Witness the humbling work conservationists are doing to protect the symbol of China at the Giant Panda Breeding Research Base. Then hit the Yangzi and spend a few dreamy days drifting downriver in a tourist class boat to Yichang, cruising past the Three Gorges on route. Overnight: Overnight boat

Day 8-10: Xian

It’s thought that 700,000 labourers and slaves worked on the construction of the Terracotta Warriors in the third century BC; today it’s one of the most famous sights in China. The 8000 life-size statues pay homage to the dynasties and emperors of ancient China. Be sure to visit the elaborate archeological find that was only discovered by a Chinese farmer in 1974 before jumping on an overnight train to Beijing. Overnight: Xian

Day 11-14: Beijing

The hot spot of China, both modern and ancient, Beijing is forever reinventing itself. Head to the Forbidden City, Temple of Heaven Park and Summer Palace. Then make tracks to the Great Wall. Stretching for more than 3,400 km, this wonder is best explored on foot. Return to Beijing to sample some of the country’s best food, including Peking duck, dim sum, spicy noodle soup and perhaps some deep fried ice cream. Overnight: Beijing

Agents may charge service fees and/or fees for card payments which vary. If you book with Qantas Holidays an additional 2% fee applies to credit card payments. Prices are correct as at 22 Nov 13 but may fluctuate if surcharges, fees, taxes or currency change. ^ Best available daily rate refers to the lowest price available as at 22 Nov 13 and may change at the discretion of the tour operator. Amounts payable to third parties not included. Offers subject to availability. Airfares not included unless otherwise specified. Please check all prices, availability and other information with your travel consultant before booking. See booking conditions on back page.
Choose your dream holiday, and let Qantas Holidays make it happen.

Please read these conditions carefully as they apply to all Qantas Holidays bookings.

 Suppliers: Qantas Holidays is not itself a transport, tour, event or accommodation provider. In making your travel arrangements we act only as an agent for the airlines, hotels, tour operators and other suppliers who supply those services. You should obtain and read the applicable supplier’s terms and conditions as they may limit or exclude their liability to you.

 How to book: Contact your licensed AFTA travel consultant, who will be responsible for managing your booking and forwarding your payment to us. You will be deemed to have accepted these conditions on behalf of everyone named in your booking. Please note that all requests for bookings are subject to availability.

 Booking fee: Your travel agency may apply a booking fee in addition to the price of your holiday package. Please check at the time of booking.

 Payment: A non-refundable deposit is payable within seven days of confirmation of your booking:
- domestic (within Australia) $55 per person
- international $165 per person
- plus any additional deposit required by suppliers (you will be notified at the time of booking)

 Payment of the balance in full is required at least 30 days before the scheduled commencement of your holiday (or earlier if specified for the particular package). For bookings made within this period, full payment is required at the time of booking.

 If you have not paid by the due date, we may cancel your booking and retain your deposit.

 Cancellations: If you cancel your booking, the amount of your deposit will not be refunded, including deposits required by suppliers. If you have paid the balance of your holiday price, suppliers may also impose cancellation fees amounting to all or part of the total price paid. Once your holiday has commenced, you cannot cancel or obtain a refund on any component of your booking regardless of whether you use it.

 Changes by you: If you change your holiday package and your documents need to be reissued, a change fee is payable at the time of the change:
- domestic (within Australia) $27
- international $25
- plus any cancellation / change fee imposed by suppliers for any component you cancel.

 Unforeseen changes: If we have to change any part of your booking, for example, if an airline changes its schedules or your chosen accommodation is no longer available, or if there is an increase in the price due to additional taxes or supplier charges, we will notify you. You will have the option of cancelling your booking, in which case we will refund the amount you have paid, less deposit and any cancellation fees imposed by other suppliers.

 International travel: Each passenger is responsible for their own visa, passport (with at least 6 months validity), immigration, quarantine, customs, health and other requirements of the countries to be visited or transited through. Qantas Holidays makes no representations as to the safety, conditions or other issues that may arise at any destination. Travel advice is available from the Australian Government at smarttraveller.gov.au.

 Limit of liability: To the maximum extent permitted by law, Qantas Holidays excludes all liability for direct, indirect, consequential or incidental damages, lost profits or savings or damages for disappointment. Our liability for a breach of condition or warranty implied by law or otherwise, and which cannot be excluded, is limited to the extent possible, at our option to the supply of the services again or the payment of the cost of having the services supplied again.

 Insurance: Qantas Holidays recommends that all passengers take out adequate travel insurance to cover cancellations, health requirements, luggage and valuables, etc.

 Brochure validity: The prices and inclusions in this brochure are valid for the dates specified and should be used only as a guide in relation to other dates. The prices are correct at date of publication but may fluctuate due to changes in surcharges, fees, taxes and currency. Please check all prices, availability and other information with your travel consultant before booking.
