Top 10 Things To Do

1. Aitutaki Lagoon
   Tick Aitutaki Lagoon off your bucket list. With its sparkling turquoise water dotted with 15 motu (islets) and emerald green main island, it is one of the most magnificent lagoons in the world. Be sure to mail a postcard at the world’s smallest post office on motu Tapuaetai (One Foot Island). See pages 19, 43.

2. Water Adventures
   The Cook Islands are an aquatic playground with a wide range of watersports on offer. Snorkel in the crystal lagoons inside the reef and find an abundance of coral and fish. Try you hand at stand-up paddle boarding or grab a kayak and head to a deserted motu. On Rarotonga, hire a windsurfer, kite board or catamaran and find your way to Muri Lagoon.

3. Cultural Performances
   Be captivated by the natural charm of the Cook Islanders. Listen to the beat of the drums and be amazed by the fire dancers at a fun cultural show. Combine this with a traditional Polynesian feast (umu kai) for an unforgettable experience. See pages 18, 20.

4. Scuba Diving
   Dive with the friendly Aitutaki turtles, who love to have their tummies scratched! Fantastic visibility and incredible coral reefs teeming with marine life make the Cooks one of the most sought after diving spots in the South Pacific. See page 43.

5. Mountain Treks
   Join an accredited guide and navigate Rarotonga’s Cross Island Trek to the rugged rainforest interior, see Wigmore’s Waterfall and spectacular views from the iconic landmark, The Needle. On Aitutaki hike to the top of Mt Maungapu and be rewarded with panoramic views. See page 18.
6. Take Time Out
The Cooks is one of the most relaxing destinations on earth. Set your body clock to island time and relax with a cocktail as you soak up the sun. Indulge in a spa treatment or rejuvenating massage at one of the many day spas located within the resorts in Rarotonga or Aitutaki. See pages 24, 27, 31, 35 to 38, 45, 46.

7. Arts, Crafts & Black Pearls
Handcrafts are highly prized in the Cooks. Among the best-known souvenirs are the intricately woven rito hats, brightly coloured pareu (sarongs) and wooden carvings. Don’t miss the colourful Punanga Nui markets, every Saturday morning in Avarua, Rarotonga. Visit The Emporium in Titikaveka for modern handcrafted designs including Cook Island Pearls. The most romantic souvenir is the cultured black pearl.

8. Visit a Traditional Village
Gain insight into the Cook Islands’ culture with a visit to a traditional village. See traditional Maori methods of cooking, farming, medicine, fishing, carving and costume making. See pages 18, 20, 43.

9. Cast a Line
With translucent waters, tropical temperatures and pristine reefs, the Cook Islands are an angler’s paradise. Drop a line from a kayak, try your hand at bone fishing or venture into the deep blue beyond the reef to chase yellow fin tuna, mahi mahi or wahoo. See page 18, 20.

10. Attend Sunday Mass with the Locals
Spend a Sunday like the locals and receive a warm Cook Islands welcome in one of the local Christian churches on Rarotonga or Aitutaki. Feel your heart sing along with the amazing harmonies of the congregation.

Rarotonga, the Cooks’ main island, is simply breathtaking. The main town, Avarua, is a bustling, friendly, centre of activity. Here you’ll find restaurants, cafés, shops and business facilities, while the airport is just five minutes away. The Punanga Nui Markets, held every Saturday morning, are a must do, offering everything from flower garlands, fresh fish, fruits and vegetables, to black pearls, rito hats and colourful pareus (sarongs).

One of the most stunning lagoons on Rarotonga is at Muri Beach. It’s the spot for watersports including sailing, kayaking, stand-up paddle boarding and swimming. Thanks to the tradewinds from May to November, you can also try your hand at windsurfing or kite surfing. June to October is the ideal time for whale watching. Four coral islets are a pretty addition to the lagoon – Koromiri Islet is the pick for weddings. A few bars, restaurants and shops on the beach provide all you need for a relaxing break.

Great snorkelling and swimming spots are never far away on Rarotonga. The south coast, from Titikaveka to Vaimaanga and Aroa Beach, has lovely wide, long beaches and the deepest lagoon on the island, making it one of the best for snorkelling and all-tide swimming. In Titikaveka town you’ll also find the Cook Islands Christian Church. The locals singing at Sunday service is an experience not to be missed.

Aroa Lagoon Marine Reserve, a breeding ground for tropical reef fish, provides another location for fantastic swimming and snorkelling. In fact you’ll be spoilt for choice for fabulous spots along the whole west coast, a long stretch of sandy beach ending at Black Rock. Expect spectacular sunsets from this side of the island.

Rarotonga’s mountainous interior, rising to 653 metres, provides a stunning contrast to the coast’s aquatic wonderland. There are plenty of opportunities for action and adventure here, from guided walks to 4WD and quad bike tours.

Featuring on many “bucket lists”, Aitutaki is home to what is surely the most idyllic lagoon in the world. A vast expanse of crystal clear water scattered with uninhabited white sand islets that frame the palm-fringed main island, it's the quintessential tropical island paradise.

It doesn't get any better than Aitutaki for experiencing the relaxed Polynesian way of life. Spend a few days here and before long you'll be operating on island time. For those with more energy, there's everything to do on or in the water: snorkelling, swimming, diving, kayaking, windsurfing, kite surfing and stand-up paddle boarding! Fly fishers will love the opportunity to seek out the elusive bonefish. Cruise to snorkelling spots and tiny islets (motus) such as gorgeous One Foot Island. Or visit Honeymoon Island – a long stretch of sand permanently under 20cm of water.

If you'd like to have your own patch of paradise – even for a short time – catch a water taxi or hire a canoe and paddle to the nearest motu for a picnic on your very own stretch of beach.

The lagoon takes centre stage but there are plenty of other options to divert your attention. For the best views on the main island, it's an easy 30 minute walk to the summit of Mt Maungapu, Aitutaki's highest point (124 metres). Delve into the region's history on a cultural or 4WD tour or experience the showmanship of the Aitutakians at a cultural show. The high spirited, hip swinging performances of the drummers and dancers are unbeatable.

Essential Experiences

Dive into the azure blue waters of Aitutaki Lagoon and swim or snorkel with the tropical fish.

Take a cruise around one of the world's most beautiful lagoon's, where the colour blue is redefined. Enjoy a barbecue lunch and snorkel with turtles, colourful tropical fish and giant trevally.

Shop for colourful sarongs, pandanus hats and fresh produce at the markets held each Saturday at Arutanga Wharf.

The panoramic views of Aitutaki Lagoon from the top of Aitutaki's highest point, Mt Maungapu are worth the hike.

Visit the lovely whitewashed Cook Islands Christian Church in Arutanga. Built in 1828, it is the oldest church in the Cook Islands.

Hire an outrigger canoe and paddle to the nearest private motu.
