

The Best Beach Clubs in Dubai

Sun, sea, sand and sumptuous dining by day; live music, drinks and party atmosphere by night... Dubai's beach clubs have it all. Here's our pick of the best in the city:

Eden Beach Club | The Palm

Best for: Mingling with the in-crowd

English cricket star Kevin Pietersen is the big-name backer behind The Rixos The Palm's recently opened beach club, Eden. Luxury exemplified, each beach cabana comes with its very own private Jacuzzi. And come night time, the venue cements its reputation as the place for the city's affluent to see and be seen, with international DJs taking control of a booming sound system.

Palm Jumeirah, East Crescent

Jetty Lounge | One&Only Royal Mirage

Best for: Jaw-dropping views

Accessed through the lush gardens of the exclusive One&Only Royal Mirage, Jetty Lounge is elegant and peaceful in equal measure. The spectacular views out over the Arabian Gulf, Palm Bay and the stunning Dubai skyline make it the ideal place to watch the sunset over an ice-cold drink.

Al Sufouh Road, Jumeirah Beach

La Baie Lounge | The Ritz-Carlton

Best for: Daytime peace and quiet followed by upbeat evenings

A peaceful escape from the hustle and bustle of JBR's perennially busy beach, The Ritz-Carlton's La Baie Lounge is an elegant restaurant perfect for chilled-out dinner and drinks.

Jumeirah Beach Residence - The Walk

Cove Beach | Jumeirah Beach Hotel

Best for: Brilliant Burj Al Arab views

Found in the grounds of the distinctive wave-shaped Jumeriah Beach Hotel, Cove Beach is a high-end beach club offering fantastic Mediterranean-inspired food and a tranquil atmosphere in which to enjoy it. The biggest selling point is undoubtedly the location: right next to the iconic Burj al Arab.

Jumeirah Beach Hotel

Zero Gravity | Dubai Marina

Best for: Those who want to experience skydiving without taking the plunge

With a beach, garden, lounge, and restaurant, there is something for everyone at Zero Gravity. The venue overlooks the drop zone at Sky Dive Dubai, so not only can guests look out over Dubai Marina and The Palm, but they are also treated periodically to the breath-taking sight of skydivers plunging towards the ground next to them.
